

LUISS Guido Carli

Department of Law – Department of Political Science

SEPARATION OF POWERS WITHIN AND BEYOND EUROPE.
THE EVOLUTION OF A FOUNDATIONAL CONCEPT

Friday 12 April 2019
Viale Pola, 12, room AT013

h. 9.30

Institutional Greetings

1st Session: Separation of powers in the EU context

Chair: Bernardo Giorgio Mattarella (LUISS)

- Delegation of legislative power, Robert Schütze (Durham Law School)

Discussant: Daniele Gallo (LUISS)

- Independence and separation of powers: the case of the ECB, Antoine Vauchez (Université Paris 1 - Pantheon Sorbonne)

Discussant: Marta Simoncini (LUISS)

- Courts protecting democracy? Restoring the separation of parliaments, Leonard F.M. Besselink (University of Amsterdam)

Discussant: Nicola Lupo (LUISS)

- Debate

Lunch 12.30-13.45

h. 14.00

2nd Session: New insights on separation of powers from international and comparative law

Chair: Raffaele Bifulco (LUISS)

- Separation of powers and international investment adjudication, Harm Schepel (Kent University)

Discussant: Filippo Fontanelli (University of Edinburgh)

- Separation of powers in the practice of the ECtHR and the Venice Commission, Iain Cameron (Uppsala University)

Discussant: Giovanni Piccirilli

- Separation of powers after the Arab Spring, Antoni Abat Ninet (University of Copenhagen)

Discussant: Cristina Fasone

- Debate

h. 16.30

Concluding Remarks: Silvana Sciarra (Italian Constitutional Court)

Organizers: C. Fasone, D. Gallo, N. Lupo, G. Piccirilli